

Facial Rejuvenation for Fine Lines and Wrinkles

Inclusion & Exclusion Criteria

Please Read Carefully

Inclusion Criteria

- Healthy subjects with visible lines and wrinkles
- Must be between ages 30 - 60 years of age
- Must be willing to comply with treatments and all follow up requirements

Exclusion Criteria

- Must not have had collagen, other methods of tissue augmentation, Botox, chemical peels, dermabrasion, or resurfacing procedure within 1 year
- Must not have active, localized or systemic infection
- Must not be immunocompromised
- Must not have a coagulation disorder, or taking anticoagulation medication
- Must not have any known allergy to methylated ALA
- Must not be pregnant or breastfeeding
- Must not currently be using aspirin or antioxidants
- Must never have had gold therapy
- Must never have had radiation therapy to the face
- Must not have a history of active herpetic lesions
- History of keloid formation
- Oral retinoid (Accutane or Soriatane) or photosensitizing drugs, e.g. Declomycin® (a tetracycline with light absorption in the range of 400 to 450 nm use within 24 months of study entry)
- Topical retinoid therapy within one month of study entry
- History of cutaneous photosensitizing, porphyria, hypersensitivity to porphyrins, or Photodermatosis